NSA Georgia MEMBER SPOTLIGHT:
Bruce Pulver

Bruce, how were you first introduced to NSA Georgia?

- I learned about NSA Georgia in 2015 through a past member (Melissa Gordon) who I got to know while watching our daughters play high school volleyball together. I was in the midst of writing my book Above the Chatter, Our Words Matter and she recommended that I look into the Chapter as a way to support my efforts. I found interest at the time, but life took its course. I joined NSA Georgia in early 2023.

What is your background? How did you get into speaking?

- In Corporate America, I developed comfort and enjoyment of being in front of clients through training, technology demonstration, presentations, and sales engagements), therefore I gained extensive experience speaking in front of others.
- As a result of publishing my book and finding opportunities to incorporate my book concepts into company and customer meetings, speaking engagements organically developed, which led to stepping onto the TEDx stage with my talk The Secret to Changing Negative Self-talk by Renewing Your Mindset.
- As the number of TEDx views grew, I received overwhelmingly positive feedback. I was encouraged to share my message even more with sights to make an even greater impact in the lives of others. So, here we are full-time speaking, writing, conducting my unique WORDshops, podcasting, and coaching/mentoring others on the power of our words

Please tell us more about the value NSA Georgia has brought you.

- The individual relationships I've been developing through one-on-one connections have been invaluable. My hope is that connections develop into collaboration opportunities. As the saying goes, "A rising tide lifts all boats." In other words, we are better together.
- The monthly MainStage Events foster an opportunity for learning from others experiences, which I greatly value and appreciate.

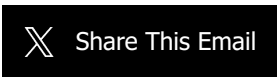

Can you share a quote that represents your experience so far?

- "My experience at NSA Georgia has been one of education, inclusion, and engagement."
